

Class information for Dansk III Fall Term 2021

Classes are held on Tuesdays 7:35PM-9:05PM, September 14th through November 16 (Note there is no class on October 26th). Course is co-sponsored by the Northwest Danish Association (NWDA) and Nordic Northwest (NNW). The sponsors reserve the right to cancel any class for which there is insufficient enrollment.

All classes are hybrid and will be taught both online, using ZOOM for distance students and using an in-classroom environment for students in the Portland metro area. Classroom is located at Nordia House, 8800 SW Oleson, Portland, OR 97229.. For more information about the course, and to verify eligibility for enrollment, students may contact Instructor, Aase W. Beaulieu, via email : aasewbeaulieu@yahoo.com.

Instructor teaching experience:

UC Berkeley (4 years, two as T.A. and two as instructor).
Berlitz International School of Languages (Portland, Oregon) 2 years,
Group and individual lessons. Private tutor since 2015.
Instructor for NWDA, Danish level I, II, III, and ADVANCED for two years.

Prerequisites: Danish Level II or permission of instructor.

Objectives

By the end of the term, students will have expanded the range of topics in which they feel comfortable conducting a casual conversation in Danish. You'll expand your ability to navigate a variety of cultural situations, such as discussing popular culture, describing places and clothing, and praising other people to strangers. You will be able to use present and future tense as well as able to read simple texts written by and for native speakers.

Materials

Class will use Aktivt Dansk, en begynderbog i dansk for udenlandske studerende, 3.revised edition, by Lise Bostrup. If not already purchased for Dansk Level II, book will be ordered from Denmark, with a cost to each student of approximately $50.00 (including shipping cost) Level III will cover chapters 17 through 25 in AKTIVT DANSK.

Cost: Tuition is $165.00 for members of either NWDA or NNW, and $205.00 for non-members. Payment must be made before first class meeting To become a member of NWDA or NNW, go to northwestdanish.org and click Membership, or nordicnorthwest.org, and click Support us, then click Membership to join.
